THE TCCHS ALUMNI FOUNDATION, INCORPORATED IN JULY 2023, COMPLETES ITS SECOND FULL YEAR AS A NON-PROFIT FOUNDATION

In May of 2013, several TCCHS alumni who later became the first organizers of the TCCHS Alumni Association met and organized an entity working under the umbrella of a nonprofit foundation originally established by the Todd County Board of Education. Because of the success the TCCHS Alumni Association had experienced in earlier years, officers and directors of the Alumni Association in 2023 began an effort to form their own nonprofit foundation. That effort culminated with the Kentucky Secretary of State's Office stamping its approval on the Articles of Incorporation and Bylaws of the new Foundation, one called the Todd County Central High School Alumni Foundation, Inc. Those documents were filed on July 12, 2023 with the Kentucky Secretary of State's Office and on July 17, 2023 at the office of Cindy O'Bryan, Todd County's County Clerk, thus finalizing the new Foundation becoming legally incorporated. IRS paperwork has also been processed, and the Foundation has continued to move forward with its support of TCCHS, notably in its provision of scholarships to the graduates of TCCHS.

Officers / Directors elected for 2025-2026 at the July 2025 meeting include Anna Jo Parmley, President (Class of 1966); Linda Fritz, Vice-president (Class of 1966); Laura Brock, Treasurer (Class of 1992); and Carolyn Wells, Secretary (Class of 1968). Directors-at-large include Jeremy Long (Class of 1998), Charlotte Morrow (Class of 1968), and Sue Neeble (Class of 1969). Two non-voting directors-at-large include Lee Quarles (TCCHS principal) and Kimberly Davis (TCMS). If you have questions, feel free to send an email to tcchsaa@gmail.com. Donations to the Foundation are always welcome. The mailing address for the Association / Foundation is P.O. Box 611, Elkton, KY 42220. ## TCCHS ALUMNI FOUNDATION AWARDS $43,125 IN SCHOLARSHIPS TO TCCHS CLASS OF 2025!

A total of 20 seniors! A total of 38 scholarships! Thanks to the generosity of so many people – alumni, friends of TCCHS, businesses, the Todd County Fiscal Court, Novelis, other local and area contributors, memberships, and the sale of our alumni items – the TCCHS Alumni Foundation, Inc. presented a total of $43,125.00 to the TCCHS Class of 2025 this past Thursday evening, May 8, 2025. This year some of our scholarships provided required a minimum of a 2.75 GPA, others a minimum of a 3.00 GPA, and two others a 3.50 GPA minimum or above. This year also saw one scholarship added that required a 2.50 GPA minimum or above. As true of past years, this year saw new scholarships added, and some other scholarships were eliminated as sponsors were not available. Of interest is the Alumni's first scholarships were awarded in 2014, a short twelve years ago, and this year's scholarship total brings the total monies awarded to seniors of TCCHS to slightly less than $255,000 in that 12-year period.

This year also saw the Foundation award our highest scholarship amount. That scholarship, the George and Vicki Hall Kennedy Academic or Technical Scholarship in the amount of $5000.00, was sponsored by two retired educators, George and Vicki Kenndy, who wanted to give back to Todd Central graduates and to the Alumni Foundation. Three other scholarships this year were made possible through the generosity of folks honoring the late Mrs. Joe Nell Glenn Waters, the late Bruce Marklin, and the late Kelsey Dunn with scholarships in their memory. As you know, Mrs. Waters was a long-time educator not only in Tennessee but also in Kentucky. She also served as principal at TCCHS for several years following her retirement from Tennessee. Friends and family of Ms. Joe Nell donated monies in her memory, and because of the generosity of so many, her scholarship will be funded for several years. Likewise, friends and family of the late Bruce Marklin, well-known police officer and police chief in Elkton, collected monies geared toward a scholarship in his honor. Again, because of the generosity of friends of the late Bruce Marklin, monies were generated to assist a student whose parent was involved with the military or the student had military ambitions or a JROTC background. A third graduate honored was the late Kelsey Dunn, a music educator who lost her life in a traffic accident last year. Her classmates, members of the TCCHS Class of 2013, opted to provide monies for a scholarship instead of flowers and other gifts at the time of her death. Their generosity led to the $500.00 scholarship in her memory.

We invite anyone who desires to establish a scholarship to reach out to one of us. Our officers/directors this year include Anna Jo Parmley, president; Linda Stokes Fritz, vice-president; Joyce Darby, treasurer; Carolyn Wells, secretary; and Charlotte Morrow, Sue Neeble, and Jeremy Long, directors-at-large. We also ask anyone, either a graduate of TCCHS or a friend of the Foundation, to join our efforts. Memberships are $10.00 yearly with a lifetime membership of $200.00 also an option. The Foundation has set a goal this calendar year to have 125 members; you can help us reach that goal. Please also remember membership monies help fund our scholarship effort! Memberships can be mailed to the TCCHS Alumni Foundation at P.O. Box 611, Elkton, KY 42220.

WEKT CONTINUES ITS PARTNERSHIP WITH THE TCCHS ALUMNI FOUNDATION, INC.

The TCCHS Alumni Foundation, Inc. continues its partnership with WEKT to spotlight alumni of TCCHS to celebrate the graduates of TCCHS. As most know, Todd Central first opened its doors in the fall of 1963, and the Foundation and WEKT want to provide ‘snippets’ of facts about those who have exited the doors of TCCHS. With a span of over 60 years, a cautious estimate of approximately 7500 or more students have become graduates of TCCHS. As we also know, many other students have attended TCCHS for less than four years, and we welcome responses from those students as well.

If someone had time to track down all the many students who have attended TCCHS during those six decades, the result would be mind-boggling.

Obviously, without the assistance of alumni of TCCHS and students who have attended TCCHS, the Foundation’s partnership with WEKT will not be a successful effort. A simple form to complete is available on the TCCHS Alumni Foundation’s website at <https://tcchs-alumni.org/news-of-interest/>. The form itself has questions that can be completed with little investment of time. Forms can be downloaded, and answers can be sent to the Foundation’s email address at tcchsaa@gmail.com.

WEKT continues to share alumni snippets about those who have walked the halls of TCCHS since its opening in 1963! Both WEKT and the Foundation are eager to learn more about the many students who have exited TCCHS with quite a few of those students living not only across our country but across the world as well. Please lend us a ‘helping hand’ to make this partnership a strong one! Follow this link to see all alumni that have been placed online –

“AUTHORFEST 2025,” AN EVENT OF SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 8, 2025,
FEATURED SEVERAL TCCHS ALUMNI AT THE TODD COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

Saturday, November 8, 2025, from 12:00 PM until 3:00 PM saw a gathering of almost 20 area writers converge on the Todd County Public Library (TCPL) for “AuthorFest,” an inaugural event planned to showcase the writings and illustrations of many local and area writers. The event, a collaborative effort with the Todd County Public Library, Friends of the Todd County Public Library, Historic Todd County, Inc. (HTC), and the Green River Academy Preservation Society (GRA), was held in the Community Room at the TCPL located at 507 South Main Street in Elkton. Amanda Hayes, TCPL's director, emailed, "At TCPL's first 'AuthorFest,' aspiring authors can converse with local published writers and poets. Children can envision their own success in storytelling, poetry, and illustration. Our patrons can celebrate the talent and diversity in literature unique to western Kentucky."

Invited writers and illustrators had on hand copies of their works to sell to the public. As typical of most author showcases, the writers were available to sign their works, and several of the writers offered their books at lower prices. As many Todd Countians are aware, the Green River Academy (GRA) has as one of its goals to promote arts in Todd County, and Historic Todd County, Inc. (HTC) also has as one of its objectives to educate and inform the public about our county's history as well as to commemorate and promote the people of our community. Once someone delves more into the writers of our area, that person will soon discover Todd County and surrounding areas have been and continue to be blessed with a plethora of writers whose talents have led them to pen and illustrate a vast array of literature and art.

**Note TCCHS alumni are underlined.

- Charles Leavell, a 1972 TCCHS graduate, a former Navy communications electrician, and a preacher in Suffolk, Virginia. Charles has penned two books focusing on Todd County Training and the integration occurring in the Todd County School District in 1963. (Because of a funeral at his home church in Virginia, Mr. Charles' sister will be on hand to represent Mr. Charles.)

APRIL 24TH INAUGURAL "POETRY SLAM" LABELED SUCCESSFUL EVENT FOR THE TODD COUNTY PUBLIC LIBRARY

To celebrate April being "National Poetry Month," the Todd County Public Library in collaboration with the Green River Academy planned the "2025 Poetry Slam" organized by Nancy Dye and Carolyn Wells, former members of the English and Social Studies Departments at TCCHS. In conversations with Dye, she expressed her admiration of and amazement at the talents the graduates of TCCHS have experienced in their lifetimes following graduation from their beloved alma mater. Allen Polk, who currently serves at the U.S. Army Space and Missile Defense Command as the Command's technology protection office for G-2 Intelligence, shared in communications with Dye he was enthralled to be a part of this event, one he stated resembles a 'mini-reunion' of classmates from TCCHS.

Over 20 individuals, most with ties to TCCHS, were on hand for the "Slam" that began at 6:00 PM on April 24th in the Community Room at the new Todd County Public Library that opened in October 2024. The room, which accommodates up to 200 people standing, saw a focus on the new library as well as on the efforts of the Green River Academy to showcase the myriad talents of Todd Countians and those with Todd County ties. Those participating in the event included Amy Bingham DeCesare, former broadcast journalist at WBKO in Bowling Green as well as a former broadcast journalist in Florida. Currently Mrs. DeCesare, her husband, and her family own The DeCesare Group, a public relations and consulting firm. She also produces a podcast hosted by her husband Jim.

Another graduate and former educator, Rosemarie Cowherd Wurth-Grice, read a selection from her new book of poetry entitled Darkness Called Us Home. Kenneth Valentine, great-nephew of the late Carl Hadden and the great-grandson of the late Joseph Newton Hadden of Hadden Mill Road, provided via a video a reading of one of his favorite psalms. Mr. Valentine, a retired Secret Service Agent who was on three Presidential Protection Details, makes his home in Birmingham and is the author of Cheating Death and Staying Sharp, two books showcasing his life experiences coupled with his faith in God. His mother, Annette Hadden Valentine, is the author of the "My Father" trilogy about her family as well as Sixty-Six Books of the Mighty Shepherd, a compilation based upon the Bible.

Others who participated, some via videos, included Kathi Hall (retired Spanish educator), Ava Reed (TCCHS freshman), Debbie Wortham (physical therapist), Lindsay Slack (educator), Andrea Payne Shade (retired math educator), Susan Dickinson (marketing agent and business owner), Orlando Andrews (certified addiction recovery coach and support specialist), Deanie Powell (elementary educator), Michael Bailey (1992 TCCHS graduate), Dr. Jaime Dye Holder (educator and administrator), Anne Stahl (retired guidance counselor and HCC college professor), Renee Brizendine Gill (Director of Philanthropy at Second Harvest Food Bank), and Dr. Amanda Hayes (Todd County Public Library Director).

The current superintendent of the Todd County School District, Mrs. Jessica McLain Addison, also shared two poems penned by her late father. Harold W. (Doc) Arnett, a former resident of Todd County and a retired educator and college administrator, was present as well. Dr. Arnett is a graduate of Trenton Elementary. Dr. Amanda Hayes, a native of Hopkinsville, stated in a meeting with the former educators she expected the “Slam” served as an impetus for the public to check out collections of poetry available in the library. Admission to the event, which was from 6:00 PM until 7:30 PM, was free with a donation jar available for those who desired to contribute to the GRA and its mission of rehabilitating the Green River Academy located at 204 Goebel Avenue in Elkton. Light refreshments were also served.

HAROLD “DOC” ARNETT, GRADUATE OF TRENTON ELEMENTARY, RELEASES *RED CLAY & GREEN FIELDS: THE TODD COUNTY YEARS

Over 70 people attended the “Poetry Slam” that was hosted on Thursday, April 24, 2025, at the Todd County Public Library. That event, one co-sponsored by the Green River Academy Preservation Society and the Todd County Public Library, saw 21 presenters provide for the audience their choice of poetry, resulting in an evening filled with memories, laughter, music, and fellowship with many folks connected to Todd County both presenting and in attendance. One of those presenters, Harold “Doc” Arnett, has in very recent months published his first book in a series he has titled “West Kentucky Heritage.” His newly released book, Red Clay & Green Fields: The Todd County Years, is “an auto-biographical account of growing up on a 250-acre family dairy farm in West Kentucky in the Fifties and Sixties.”

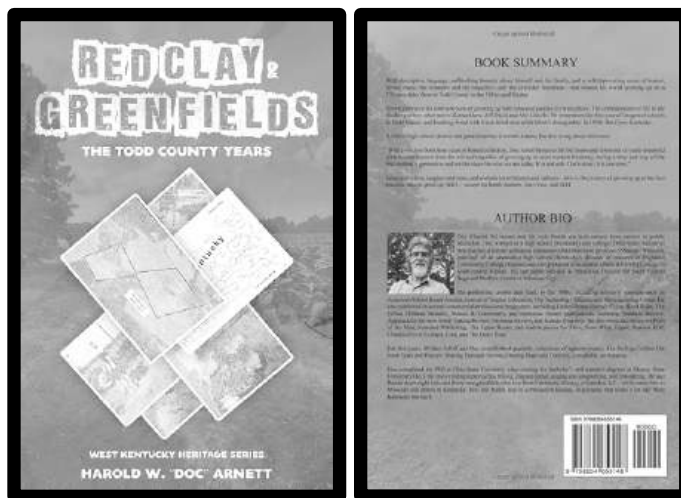

Arnett, who delighted the audience at “Poetry Slam” with both his poetry, his wit, and his music, described his book as a “blend of humor, insight, and raw honesty.” His late father, a Church of Christ preacher in our area for many years, and his mother, described by Arnett as a “pioneer woman mother,” provided the strong foundation Arnett and his siblings gained working on a large dairy farm in the Trenton area. A classmate, Kenneth Adams, penned in describing the book, “With a wisdom born from years of honest reflection, Doc Arnett brings to life the hopes and optimism of youth tempered with lessons learned from the toil and tragedies of growing up in rural western Kentucky during a time and way of life that molded a generation and set the stage for who we are today. It is not only Doc's story; it is our story.”

Arnett also describes his autobiography as one that presents “Dramatic events including seeing a sister nearly burned alive and a brother rushed to the hospital with a heat stroke.” Humor also can be found in his 277-page collection as Arnett recalls skinny dipping in a spring-fed creek, experiencing adventures interrupted by a skunk, and engaging in a walnut war in an old cemetery. He also documents life on the farm resulted in the family’s growing and harvesting their own food, including meat, while dealing with the ordinary challenges of a way of life that has all but disappeared in modern society.

The son of Charlie and Ruby Arnett and one of five siblings, Doc Arnett has a background in public education with many of those years spent at the high school and college level in an industrial arts classroom. He also has devoted years as a teacher education instructor at Ohio State, a professor at Missouri Western, a principal of an alternative high school in Kentucky, a director of research at Highland Community College in Kansas, a vice-president of academic affairs at Cowley College in Kansas, and a Marketing Director for South Central Regional Medical Center in Arkansas City, Kansas.

Copies of Red Clay & Green Fields: The Todd County Years are now available on Amazon with hardbacks selling for $24.00 and paperbacks selling for $12.00.

Aaron Brown is from Clifty, who recently graduated from the Enhanced Operator Program at TCCHS. Aaron's HOPFAME employer sponsor is Novelis in Guthrie. Aaron stated he joined HOPFAME to “learn and gather as much information to be a successful maintenance man in the future.” Outside of school and work, Aaron enjoys singing, attending church, and spending time with his family and friends.

Anyone who knows Carolyn Miller Farmer will share her love of others as well as her love of her church and Todd County. At the November 15, 2025 Todd County Chamber of Commerce's Awards Night, Carolyn received the prestigious "Bryan Blount III Citizen of the Year Award." The late Mr. Blount, former mayor of Elkton, was known for his community spirit, and Mr. Blount's community spirit and his love of others can be seen daily in the life of Carolyn Farmer. Carolyn, who makes her home in the Elkton area, is a devoted caregiver to several people in our community. She is described as the 'heart and hands' of Jesus as she continually gives of her time and her talents to many in our community.

We also have added blank cards for TCMS, South Todd Elementary, and North Todd Elementary. A pack of five post cards with envelopes sells for $5.00. We are also offering to the public post-card sized magnets featuring many of the former schools a part of Todd County’s history. Magnets with past schools of our county are $1.00 each. The bricks sell for $25.00 and make excellent keepsakes for those who have everything. We also have silicone phone wallets featuring the TC logo that sell $3.00 each or two for $5.00. We were gifted in recent years commemorative coins featuring a picture of TCCHS on the front as well as part of the alma mater on the back of the coin. The coins sell for $5.00 and make excellent gifts and keepsakes. We are offering again two distinctive mugs – one with the ELKTON mural on it and another one with the ELKTON CASH GROCERY mural that adorns the side of Angela Blake’s Shelter Insurance. Mugs sell for $10.00 each. The ELKTON mural adorns the side of “The Lucky Cowgirl,” formerly Campbell’s Drugs.
